- At 7:45 a.m. on 17 July 1951, two planes of the alert flight took off from Brandenburg-Briest airfield and shortly thereafter landed. After the two planes landed 36 MIG-15s took off individually or in formations of two and then landed. At 9:40 a.m., the field was occupied by 20 MIG-15s including two of the alert flight. Since no flying was observed at the field on 16 July, source believed that the 36 MIG-15s which were seen taking off on 17 July had arrived at the airfield during the night of 16 July. *
